

fall in love

The citrus brights and girly prints of summer give way to fall's grown-up, all-woman allure. We pick the season's top 10 trends and show you how to wear them

Black lace cardigan (P7950) by Arma Sui at Ruztan's, gold rayon/polyester tube top (P2998, with matching long-sleeved top, not shown) by Elio, silver brocade pencil skirt (P3250) by Jessica, vintage gold brooches and black satin belt

MULTIPLE BROOCHES

Wearing one is nice, but pinning two or more estate brooches in well-located clusters is even better. Aside from the traditional lapel placement, emphasize the waist with a brooch "belt buckle" or fasten a few on the side with a ribbon belt for a fresh take

2 to tango

Whether the dress code says casual dressy, corporate chic or funky formal, take a look at this season's shoe and bag trends and get ready to face the party months ahead

A woman with dark hair pulled back is sitting on a wooden deck, looking out over a blue ocean under a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds. She is wearing a white, strapless, ruffled top and a large, multi-strand necklace made of blue and green beads. She is also wearing a gold watch on her left wrist and a green leaf-shaped bracelet on her right wrist. In the background, there is a thatched roof structure and a wooden railing. The overall mood is serene and tropical.

Taking our cue from notorious party girl Paris Hilton, subtlety is shelved for a look that dares to bare—with light fabrics and brash brights—and isn't afraid to accessorize with big, bold rocks
